Valveuser Magazine has been published since 2007 and remains the premier specialist journal for the Valve and Actuator Industry.

Primarily sent as an e-magazine, the BVAA has re-introduced two special print editions each year, for distribution at strategic trade shows and industry events.

Valveuser Magazine continues to be a FREE publication, and has a dedicated readership.

BVAA members can submit up to two pieces of free editorial in each issue, and we keep all advertising rates for print magazines extremely competitive.

- E-magazine sent to 4,000+ opted-in subscribers worldwide.
- Special Print Editions 3000+ copies.
- Distributed at major exhibitions and industry events.
- valveuser.com website has on average 7,200 page views per month and 1,000s of articles.
- Editorial and Advertising is reserved for BVAA Members only.

Editorial Themes

The BVAA membership is made up of companies who manufacture, distribute or repair valves and actuators and related products and services. These products and services range across a number of sectors, which is why we do not restrict members to an editorial calendar with specific themes. Instead, we want members to showcase their companies, products, people and expertise in the issue that best fits for them.

Ideas for editorial themes could include (but are not limited to):

- New product or service announcements
- New contracts and partnerships
- Case Studies, Problem Solving
- Acquisitions, mergers or expansion news
- New premises or facilities
- Accreditations, awards
- New appointments, staff changes
- Training and events
- Attendance at Events, Exhibitions, Conferences etc
- Innovation

Editorial Prerogative

Submission of material should not be taken as a guarantee of inclusion. BVAA reserves the right to correct, amend and otherwise edit the material as it sees fit and to suit the circumstances. The editor's decision is final. Editorial is not returned to contributors for final approval. All contributors are referred to the Disclaimer and Copyright notice in the footer of our website here: valveuser.com.
